The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission of [Member State] to the United Nations and wishes to express a gratitude for its dedicated, collaborative and sustained support in providing police officers and civilian specialists for service in UN peace operations.

In line with an effort to enhance efficiency and transparency in the deployment of qualified police personnel with the requisite skills, the Police Division has developed separate recruitment streams for the categories of: (a) police command; (b) police operations; (c) police capacity-building and development; and (d) police administration. This adjustment aligns with the Strategic Guidance Framework and responds to the recent reviews of police in peace operations. It is aimed to have separate recruitment streams for the deployment of police personnel that will be employed according to the four functional areas identified to accomplish the different tasks of the current policing mandate.

The Secretariat also presents the generic job descriptions for each of the above categories and reviewed list of the police skill sets that will be needed in each field mission over the next six months. The Member States are requested to nominate candidate(s) specifying the category, skill set(s) and specific field mission component according to the listed requirements.

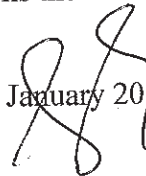

The Secretariat wishes to reiterate that promoting and encouraging respect for human rights is a core purpose of the United Nations and central to the delivery of its mandates. Should the Secretariat become aware of grave human rights violations which give rise to concerns as to the record and performance of [country] police personnel, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in UN peace operations. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

Within the framework of the global effort of the United Nations to increase participation of women in peacekeeping operations up to 20%, the Secretariat strongly encourages Member States to nominate female police officers. Given the added benefits female officers bring to the field mission, preference will be given to equally qualified female candidates during the selection process. Female candidates may be considered for the initial deployment of six months if so requested by Member State.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission of [Member State] to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR NON-CONTRACTED POSITIONS IN UNITED NATIONS POLICE COMPONENTS IN PEACEKEEPING OPERATIONS OR SPECIAL POLITICAL MISSIONS REQUIRING OFFICIAL SECONDMENT FROM NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS OF UN MEMBER STATES

Outlined below are the procedures to be followed by Permanent Missions for the presentation of candidates for assignment with peacekeeping operations or special political missions requiring secondment from active Police service. In the interest of promoting an orderly process and to avoid delay in the consideration of applications, Permanent Missions are respectfully requested to adhere closely to these procedures.

1. The above mentioned posts are reserved for candidates recommended by Member States through their Permanent Missions to the United Nations. Candidates applying independently will not be considered. It is requested that applications be submitted as soon as possible but not later than deadline specified in each Job Opening announcement. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.
2. All applications must be submitted on a duly completed (typed) and signed United Nations Electronic Application for Seconded Police (EASP). Applications using other formats will not be accepted, but additional information may be attached to the EASP. For the convenience of the Permanent Missions, an EASP form is enclosed as a sample. The EASP form is to be used for applications for the seconded non-contracted posts only.
3. Candidates' passport copies must be submitted along with the EASP forms. Passports validity must be at least 18 months at the date of nomination.
4. Selection for service with the United Nations is made on a competitive basis. It is therefore essential that all the application forms are completed with a view to presenting the candidates qualifications and experiences as they relate to the required skillset/area of expertise as set out in the relevant Job Description. All sections of the EASP, including the "DECLARATION OF DISCIPLINARY CLEARANCE" (section 12), must be filled out with all necessary details of applicant's career and background. In the event a Permanent Mission wishes to recommend a candidate for several posts/areas, a separate application form should be submitted for each post.
5. Permanent Mission is requested to present its candidates in one single submission under a cover of a note verbale listing the names of the candidates and the corresponding vacancy announcement, in accordance with the deadline specified in the Job Description, or the rotation schedule of its national police contingent in the specific mission. For the convenience of the Permanent Mission a table is attached to be used and photocopied as needed for the listing of its candidates. The nominations without the duly filled table will not be accepted.
6. It is highly desirable that a Permanent Mission submits the Medical Forms (MS2) of the candidates along with the electronic application forms (EASP) and passport copies or at least as soon as possible after the clearance of the nominations for the deployment.
7. Applications can be either hand-delivered by Permanent Mission to the Police Division Selection and Recruitment Section, Office of Rule and Law and Security Institutions, Department of Peacekeeping Operations at 1 UN Plaza, 7th floor, room DC1 -....., in accordance with the specific directions in the relevant Note Verbale or e-mailed to the respective desk officer of the Selection and Recruitment Section of the Police Division.
8. Upon delivery of the applications, the Selections and Recruitment Section will acknowledge the receipt to the individual making the delivery.
9. Communication regarding this process will be maintained through the Permanent Mission only. The Secretariat will not entertain personal queries from individual applicants.

GUIDANCE
ON THE UNPOL SELECTION AND DEPLOYMENT WITHIN THE NEW RECRUITMENT STREAMS

New Recruitment Streams

In an effort to enhance efficiency and transparency in the deployment of qualified police personnel with the requisite skills, the Police Division has developed separate recruitment streams for the categories of:

- (a) police command (COM);*
- (b) police operations (OPS);*
- (c) police capacity-building and development (CBD); and*
- (d) police administration (ADM)*

These new recruitment streams align with the Strategic Guidance Framework and respond to recent review of policing in peace operations. This initiative is aimed to have separate recruitment streams for the deployment of police personnel that will be employed according to the four functional areas identified to accomplish the different tasks of the current policing mandates.

The skill sets required for the implementation of the above activities are grouped and synchronized with the above categories. The nomination of police personnel for the service with the UN Police field components should be made according to the skill set outlined in the attached table. The national government can nominate the candidate(s) in one or two categories of skill sets; this should be clearly articulated in the Note Verbal and the list of personnel, which is to be attached to the Note Verbal.

Initial Deployment

The nominees possessing the skill sets in the category of Capacity Building and Development may be considered for initial deployment for two years subject to an operational need for that particular expertise and the proof of their capacity through the additional interview. The initial deployment of Specialised Police Teams can also be proposed for two years.

The Police Division would seek the Police Contributing Country's (PCC) acceptance of this modality through the relevant statement in the nomination Note Verbal.

The final decision on the duration of initial deployment will also be the subject to the endorsement by the Head of Police Component (HOPC) in a specific mission, in addition to satisfying the required qualification criteria. If the PCC or HOPC does not endorse the deployment for two years, the nominee(s) will be initially deployed according to the current common practice, i.e. for one year.

Female candidates may be considered for deployment of 6 months if so requested by PCC.

Nominated officers will be deployed to the Missions either within the framework of current PCCs' scheduled rotations or according to the special requests for specific expertise (e.g.

Specialized Police Teams). No increase of national UNPOL contingents in field missions is foreseen within this initiative unless otherwise specifically requested.

Member States, which are not currently active PCCs but willing to contribute their police personnel to the peacekeeping operations and/or special political missions may nominate individual police officers for specific mission(s) according to the current Guidance and attached Nomination Procedures. Their deployment will be subject to missions' absorption capacity and available vacancies.

Current active PCCs willing to deploy their individual police officers to the peacekeeping operations others than those where they contribute to, may consider nominating candidates if they meet qualification and skill set requirements and the mission of their interest has necessary absorption capacity and relevant vacancies.

Extension

Upon the request of the HOPC, the officers deployed within the category of Capacity Building and Development can be considered for a 1-year tour of duty (TOD) extension upon the completion of their assignment (one- or two-year), subject to their appropriate performance and medical clearance in the mission, operational need and concurrence of the national government.

Rotations

Timely replacement of outgoing police officers is essential for field mission's continuity and effectiveness. In this regard, the PCCs are requested to monitor the rotation schedule of their contingents and nominate adequate and timely replacement of outgoing UNPOL officers at least four months prior to an upcoming rotation in accordance with the specific operational requirements of a particular field mission.

Conditions of Service

Upon arrival in Mission area, the officers may be deployed in any region of the field missions and any pillar of the UN Police Components according to their expertise, qualification and experience identified during the selection process. The specificity of the most of the missions mandates demand readiness from the UNPOL officers to implement mandated tasks in harsh service conditions they may face in the Mission area.

Nomination procedures

The electronic application forms (EASP) should be used by the candidates nominated for deployment as UNPOL (non-contracted seconded) officers. The form must be duly filled out electronically, signed by the applicant and submitted to the Police Division through the Permanent Mission to the UN. Updated application procedures are attached. Valid passports copies must be submitted along with the application forms. Submission of Medical forms (MS2) is also highly desirable at the time of nomination.
