RESPONSIBILITIES

Under the authority of the direct supervisor within the organizational structure of the UNSOM Police Section and/or Head of Field Office and within the limits of delegated authority, the UN Police Adviser for Strategic Advice and Coordination will be responsible for, but not limited to, the performance of the following duties:

- Support the development, review and implementation of police reform and development plans (such as the Somali police plans and the Joint Police Programme) by advising, coaching, mentoring and to the extent possible co-location.
- Provide advisory support to the Somali police in the formulation and implementation of internal procedures and mechanisms to enable the delivery of basic policing services to the targeted community.
- Provide advice to Somali police on countering crime including sexual and gender-based violence.
- Support stakeholders through strategic policy advice on peacebuilding and State-building, including on: police reform within the framework of the United Nations Global Focal Point arrangement; and developing an appropriate policing system as part of the development of a federal system, the constitutional review process and preparations for elections.
- Assist the Federal Government of Somalia in coordinating international donor support to Somalia's policing sector, in compliance with the Human Rights Due Diligence Policy (HRDDP), including through coordination and advice to the comprehensive approach to security structure.
- Develop and maintain collaborative relationships with the African Union Mission in Somalia focal points, especially in relation to AMISOM's support to operational policing activities.
- Support the Somali Government-led inclusive political process, in particular with regards to strengthening the rule of law, including the development of a federal justice system and implementation of Somalia's New Policing Model in line with the Comprehensive Approach to Security.

- Participate in the training need analysis aimed at the identification of local police and other law enforcement's capacity gaps and deficiencies, particularly in relation to developing police leadership and management and in improving the delivery of basic policing services to local communities.
- Advise the Somali police on infrastructure administration and support in the relevant area of expertise through observation and guidance, assisting in improving their skills and knowledge to adopt best practices.
- Provide advice to Somali police in the development of long and short-term strategies in the areas of procurement, logistics, asset management, budgeting, strategic financial planning, payroll systems, financial auditing, weaponry, information technology, communication, public information etc.
- Perform other duties as may be required by the UNSOM Police leadership within the framework of mandate implementation especially in connection to the specific subject matter expertise.
